JACOB COHËN

MILANO

Jacob Cohën is far more than just a brand. It's a story of passion, innovation, courage, resilience, hope and determination. It's an intuition that was born and developed across two generations, and today represents the vision of a woman and business leader, Jennifer Tommasi Bardelle.

FASHION WORKER DRESS JEANS AND JACKETS

JACOB COHEN

MILANO

The brand was established in 1985 by the Bardelle family with a clear goal in mind: to break down hierarchies and elevate jeans to luxury status. It would be Nicola Bardelle, about 15 years later, who would bring that revolutionary concept to fruition. In 2002, he relaunched the brand, disrupting the very concept of denim.

It was his attention to exclusive detail, obsession with excellence, and desire to create something unique that transformed a simple pair of jeans into a garment with great personality.

A SENSORY JOURNEY WITH THE ENVELOPING JACOB COHËN FRAGRANCE

With the same bold and unconventional spirit that defines the Jacob Cohën brand, the amenities line created in collaboration with Allegrini is born: a collection that gently nourishes body and hair thanks to the presence of organically grown Italian Hemp Oil, a natural antioxidant. These exclusive products are made unique by the iconic fragrance that embodies Jacob Cohën's olfactory identity, with its unmistakable notes of patchouli and Indian wood, offering a truly immersive and enveloping experience. Entirely crafted in aluminium, the plastic-free packaging represents a sustainable, environmentally conscious solution for a collection designed in harmony with nature and its elements.
