HISTORY and PHILOSOPHY

Profumeria Inglese. A historic brand, founded in 1843 by the English pharmacist Henry Roberts in Florence. A pharmaceutical company specialised in fine perfumes and liqueurs that still enjoys great international prestige today, thanks to the invention of talcum powder.

An ancient tradition. A noble history. An iconic creation that combines careful herbal inspiration with the most elegant Made in Italy quality.

The collaboration between Profumeria Inglese and Allegrini stems from a shared desire to offer products of excellence - exclusive and refined. Quality products that embody tradition, passion and innovation, for genuine moments of care and relaxation.
